Theft Suspects Found in Utah

Two youths suspected of burglarizing postal saving bonds and other items from a home here are to be returned from Cedar City, Utah, harbor detectives indicated today. The pair was arrested in the Utah city as they were said to be attempting to sell the bonds there. An FBI check revealed that they had been stolen here. Police said that the bonds were taken in the burglary of the home of Lucio Ayala at 20826 S. along with a watch, cash and clothing.

JR. COLLEGE ENROLLMENT STILL OPEN

Two evening art classes, Art Structure and Perspective and Freehand, both of which meet on Wednesday evenings between the hours of 6:30 and 9:30, will be held open to enrollment at Harbor Junior College until Wednesday evening, October 3, according to Mr. Laurel Boyd Baker, chairman of the Construction and Art Technology division. The Perspective and Freehand class features instruction in the rules of one-point and two-point perspective, correct drawing, freehand drawing, sketching, and shading, and various types of rendering. Skills developed in the class can be utilized in interior design work, in any art profession, in industrial and shop drawing, and in sketching and painting hobby activities. Mr. Harold H. Jones, former chairman of the Art Department at Washington High School, who is instructor of Art at the local college, will teach the evening art classes. Persons interested in either of the classes can enroll at any time prior to or at the third meeting of the classes on Wednesday evening, October 3.
